

Training: Helping you help yourself

If you or your office would like to learn more about how to get the most from MeL, or other Library of Michigan resources, our staff would be delighted to provide training. Please contact us to arrange a session at the Library or at your site. To schedule, call 3-1300 (517-373-1300)

Library Cards

Getting a Library of Michigan card is easy. Apply online at www.mi.gov/librariycard, or stop by the Reference Desk and fill out an application the next time you're in the Library. This card gives you access to not only the material in our library but to books and articles available via interlibrary loan.

Interlibrary Loan Services

If the Library of Michigan doesn't have the material you need, we offer an easy way for you to borrow from other libraries. Through our Interlibrary Loan office (ILL) we are able to get materials and articles on any subject from libraries all over the world and deliver them to your office, and often, to your computer.

Comprehensive Information Services Addressing Your Needs

We pride ourselves in our confidentiality, nonpartisanship, objectivity and timeliness.

We know our stuff — You should, too!

The Library has a collection of general and Michigan specific periodicals and journals, including an archive of newspapers from across the state with current subscriptions to over 40 titles.

As an official depository for government documents, we have publications and resources from all branches of the State of Michigan and U.S. governments.

Our Main and Reference collections contain historical and contemporary materials to support state government activities including topics such as public policy, standards and statistical sources.

LM's collection of Michigana – materials about Michigan or by Michigan authors is the largest in the state and covers all aspects of life and work in Michigan.

The Martha W. Griffiths Michigan Rare Book Room special collections include Angling, Law, Great Lakes, Travel, and Americana Materials. The pieces contained in these collections include materials in leather, bark and parchment as well as Michigan Book Art pieces.

A Library on your Desktop!

The Michigan eLibrary collection of over 30 databases brings articles from magazines, newspapers and other trusted publications to your desktop in full-text. MeL is your anywhere, anytime information gateway to librarian-selected Internet resources, online practice tests, job-search assistance, curriculum-building resources and more. All of these resources are available to residents of the state of Michigan through <http://mel.org>.
